YOUTH OF AMERICAN NAVY HAS HARROWING EXPERIENCE.

BY WINGROVE BATHON,

Army of Occupation in Mexico.

VERA CRUZ, May 2 (by mail steamer).—What the United States blue jackets and marines were called upon to dare and do in the occupation of Vera Cruz is illustrated in the accompanying nicture. Here is seen an eighteen-year-old boy, C. L. Doyle, orderly to Capt. Rush of the battle-ship Florida, who killed the men whose bodies are seen, as they rushed his
